Welcome to the Traditional Wine Tavern „Maulaffenbäck“

The Bäck is a special form of gastronomy, a special kind of wine tavern in the area of Würzburg.

Bäck comes from baker, many of which used to operate a vineyard as a secondary job.

They then had the right to serve their own wine in their bakeries. Because they only had baked goods, guests would bring their own sausage and the Bäck would provide them with cutlery and napkins.

This gave rise to the Bäck tradition.

Over the years, the Bäcks developed into popular meeting sites for the Würzburg citizens.

However, only the name remains of many traditional operations.

Have a nice stay! Yours, the Brand-Kern family

Wenn der Frange frängisch red – Mundartgedicht über'n „Maulaffenbäck“

*In Würzburg da isses scho lang Tradition, da geht der Opa, der Vater, der Sohn,
oft a die Tante mit Wurscht und Weck
e mal im Monat zum „Maulaffenbäck“.
Da isses lustig, da isses schö.
Da kannst noch vor Lache die Aache verdreh.
Nit, des mer denkt, da müsst wer sei!
Nä s'kann jeder Maulaff nei.
Ob von der Bahn oder Gerichtsvollzieher,
sogar e Steuerhinterzieher,
ob e Friseur, ob StraÙekehrer, oft e mal e Englischlehrer.
Ob Zahnarzt, der vielleicht noch Dokter.
S'is scheiÙegal, am Stammtisch hockt er.
Ener, der e Anwalt is,
e Oma mit em Kunstgebiss, Rentner aus der Traubegass`
ham am Schoppetsetze Spass.
Rhönradfahrer, Zungebläcker, aus der SemmelstraÙ a Bäcker.*

*Jogger, Gärtner, Pisteläuffer, Hemde-, Schlappe-, Hutverkäuffer,
Dienstmäddli und Arbeitslose,
Minnesänger und Matrose.
Schäferhünd, a Spitz und Setter,
alle Arte Hundsverrecker.
Antichriste und a Fromme –
jeder is da gleich willkomme !!!
I sag's doch, es kann jeder nei!
Er muss halt nur a MAULAFF sei!*

Franconian people, Franconian language, A Franconian poem about the „Maulaffenbäck“

Translator's note: The poem written in the Franconian dialect describes the tradition of Würzburg, in which everyone, no matter their age (grandfather, father, son), gender (aunt, grandma), religion („antichrists“ and „pious people“) or professional status (among others, bailiff, street cleaner, English teacher, dentist, lawyer and hairdresser are named, but even the „tax evader“ is included in the long list of „professions“ mentioned) will meet at the „Bäck“ once a month to enjoy some time together – the only prerequisite being that they enjoy gossip and like to talk.
